

Anne Arundel County Mental Health Resources

The following are 24/7 hotlines/services:

If there is a danger of suicide, violence or self-harm:

- Call 911 and be VERY clear about the nature of the emergency – state the word SUICIDAL

If someone is in an emotional crisis which is escalating and could reach levels of violence or self-harm:

- Call AA County Crisis Response Hotline – 410-768-5522. If necessary, both the police and a trained mental health manager will be dispatched

If someone is in danger of suicide or self-harm, yet is cooperative and communicative

- Drive to the Emergency Department of the nearest hospital and be very clear with the intake specialist about the nature of the emergency – state the word SUICIDAL
- Persons already in regular mental health programming who experience life-threatening relapse likely needing hospitalization may access the Sheppard Pratt (Towson) Crisis Walk-in Clinic – call 410-938-5302 to confirm operating hours and bed availability.

For veterans needing emergency support:

- Call 800-273-8255 and press 1

If there is concern for the safety of a student attending AA County Schools:

- Call 877-676-9854

The following are NON-EMERGENCY community mental health services:

For someone with private insurance seeking a NON-EMERGENCY mental health evaluation within 24 hours

- Call Oasis Mental Health 410-571-0888

For someone low income or on Medical Assistance seeking a NON-EMERGENCY mental health evaluation

- Call Arundel Lodge at 443-433-5900

For a student at Anne Arundel Community College needing mental health support

- Call AACC personal counseling services at 410-777-7111

For individuals seeking substance abuse evaluation and treatment

- Call Pathways (affiliated with AAMC) at 443-481-5400

For women or families needing sliding scale (low income) counseling services

- Call YWCA of Anne Arundel County at 410-626-7800

For Veteran readjustment counseling and services (including family services)

- Call Annapolis VET Center at 410-605-7826

To access private insurance on-going mental health services

- Call your insurance company or seek a referral from your primary care physician

To access psychotherapy offered from a Catholic perspective:

- View a list of therapists at www.catholictherapists.com/maryland
- Call Alpha and Omega at 301-767-1733

The following are community-based mental health support programs:

- National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) – Anne Arundel County – provides community-based support groups and educational programs free of charge. Go to www.namiaeac.org or call the ‘help-line’ at 443-569-3498
- Maryland Coalition of Families for Children’s Mental Health – Offers navigation support for families with school aged children with mental illness. Go to www.mdcoalition.org or call 800-607-3637
- Anne Arundel County Mental Health Agency - For general information on county services, go to www.aamentalhealth.org or call 410-222-7858
- Anne Arundel Network of Care - For a directory of local resources, information and services to cope with mental health issues, go to www.annearundel.md.networkofcare.org